Dear Professor Faulkner

Magna Carta College Review for Educational Oversight: confirmed judgements

Thank you for your response to the draft Review for Educational Oversight (REO) report. The team considered the points you raised, and has confirmed its judgements as set out below.

- The team has confidence in the College's management of academic standards for which it is responsible
- it has confidence in the College's management and enhancement of the quality of learning opportunities
- Reliance can be placed on the accuracy and completeness of the information that the College is responsible for publishing about itself and the programmes it delivers.

Finally, the review team and I should like to thank you and all your colleagues who have been involved with the review, for the cooperative way in which you, and they, have assisted QAA in its work.

Yours sincerely

Guidance on publishing information about your review

As previously advised, we ask that providers use approved wording to describe your relationship with QAA and to publicise information relating to your review. As you have now received your confirmed judgements, the following wording should be used:

[Provider name has/We have] undergone a review for educational oversight by the Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education (QAA) and [is/are] awaiting publication of its final report.

Please note that the QAA logo is not available for use by providers.
